

Need Help?

education
mental health

child abuse
or neglect

adoption

JUVENILE JUSTICE

youth
employment

foster care

Give a child a voice... contact a child advocate.

Child Advocates provide assistance to families by assessing the services they need in their communities; intervening with state and local agencies; and helping parents, family members and other concerned citizens become better advocates for their own children and children in their community.

919.807.4400

childadvocates@doa.nc.gov

N.C. Department of Administration
Youth Advocacy & Involvement Office
www.ncyao.com

This public document was produced in October 2009.